

When Can I Get Info About My Loved One?

You can get info if:

- Your loved one gives verbal or written permission
- You're listed on a HIPAA Authorization form
- Your loved one is present and does not object when info is shared
- Your loved one is unable to communicate, and you are their personal representative, or the provider uses professional judgment to share info for their care

